

WANT TO START A BUSINESS? OR CHANGE THE TYPE OF COMPANY YOU OWN?

Which type of entity should it be? – a C corporation? an S corporation? a partnership? a limited liability company? or maybe a sole proprietorship?

Understanding the differences among these types of business entities can save you money and headaches now and for years to come – in assignment of liability, tax consequences, management responsibility, and the consequences of selling or transferring the business.

You've come to the right place for experienced advice! PSWA frequently helps client to establish, or change, their type of business entity. The rules are complex, and we're here to provide you with the information you need to make decisions like this.

To whet your appetite, click on our comparative entity chart. When you're interested in discussing in depth the possibilities that might best suit your situation, please drop us an email to Don@pswa.com or George@pswa.com give us a call at 425-562-6899. We would be glad to assist you.